In connection with the statement enclosed with the Commissioner's letter ref'd to above, the medical officer showing drawing Rs 48 on 31-10-34 in the scale of 40-1-50, and the compounder Rs. 20 drawing in the scale of 15-1-20- The Commissioner, Bellary Mfg is requested to state why they were drawing only Rs. 45 and 19 respectively on 31-10-34 in the old scale.

Note. Please see the statement on p.9 of. The H.O & compounders are

The statement that he was drawing that amount from 26-8-31 - In the ordinary course he should have been drawing Rs 48 on 31.1034 Similarly the Compounder To should have been drawing

I think it merely means that they started on the Scale of pay for 1931 and had been drawing increments since then. The year in Col 5 must be 1934. The memo may however issue.

Establishment - Medical Institutions - Bellary Municipality - Personal pay to medical officers and com-pounders of Ayurvedic Dispensary:—

The Doctor and the Compounder were not allowed to draw the increments due to them in their graded scale in previous years for want of funds. There are no records showing the stoppage of such increments except in 1933-34 when the council had resolved to stop the increments as a retrenchment measure (copy enclosed). If all the back in-crements are allowed in the old scale to the Doctor and th compounder they will be entitled to Rs 48 and Rs 20 on the 31st October 1934 respectively. Therefore the difference between the pay now fixed as per G.O.No:315 P.H dated 11-2-35 and the pay which they would have drawn on 31-10-34 i.e, (Rs 48 and 20) may kindly be treated as personal pay from 1-3-35 as was done in the case of Municipal High School establishment.

In their resolutions of 3-8-25 the Bellary Md.al proposed to grant a personal pay of Rs 5 and Rs 1. to the H.O & compounders respectively. These amounts were the difference between the pay they were drawing in the scales of pay on 31-10-24 and the pay admissible to them on 1-11-24 in the new scales.

Please see the statement furnished by the Commr and Agent. Memo. no. 5-2892-1924 of 23-12-25 & his reply, & the Commr states that the H.O & compounders were not allowed to draw the increments due to them in their graded scale for want of funds, and that they would be entitled to Rs. 48 and 20 respectively on 31-10-24 had all the back increments been allowed in the old scale of pay. The Commission

Commissioner now requests for to treat as personal pay the difference between the pay now fixed as per G.O. No. 315 PH of 11-2-35 and the pay which they would have drawn on 31-10-34 as in the case of M.L. High school establishment.

2. Attention is invited to the statements on pp 15-16 of G.O. No. 4898 Edn (P) of 27-11-35 and the order of on pp 48-49. (P)

It may be seen that this concession was granted to the secondary school staff as who had entered into agreements with the Mgr. The H.O. & compounders do not seem to have entered into agreements and as such their cases are not analagous to that of the teachers. Further the council has sanctioned personal pay of Rs 5 and 1 only to the H.O & compounders respectively. The grant of the above amounts as personal pay seems to be sufficient.
